

Museum of North Craven Life

The Folly, Victoria Street, Settle

Exhibitions 2009

7 April to 23 June

Celebrating North Craven Past and Present

Projects by groups in North Craven, inspired by the museum's fascinating collection of local books,
documents and photographs.

27 June to 4 August

Sheep: From Lamb to Loom

An innovative exhibition of images and sounds by Kate Lynch and Alastair Goolden on the theme of sheep and sheep farming traditions.

8 August to 31 October

Some Sheep are on the Pitch...

An exhibition celebrating the centenary of the Craven Football Association.

Exhibition of North Craven Life, including farming, landscape and the Settle-Carlisle Railway permanently on show

Talks and Family Events at The Folly 2009

Always ring or check the website to confirm dates, times and costs. Events will be listed in local publications and advertised by poster nearer the time of the event. All events are held in The Folly, unless otherwise stated.

Family events are included in the admission price and generally run from 10.30am – 12.30pm and 2pm – 4pm,
on a first-come-first-served basis.

Tickets for talks must be booked in advance and are available from The Folly

and Settle Tourist Information Centre.

February: Wednesday 25th, 2pm: Caring for Old Documents and Photographs by North Yorkshire Record Office conservator Stephen Allen. Tickets £5

April: Tuesday 7th and 14th: Puppet Making

Use recycled materials and fabric to make colourful characters from traditional Pace Egg Easter plays and Morris dances.

May: Thursday 7th, 7pm: “One of the Yorkshire Dales' Greatest Characters”: Tot Lord – a talk by Richard Whinray. Tickets £5

Tuesday 26th: Special Books – make a castle shaped book or a photo display book or a book which turns into a theatre!

June: Thursday 11th, 7pm: Hellfield Peel – Remembering its Glory Days. David Craven Ellis recalls his boyhood at the Peel. Tickets £5

Sunday 7th and 14th, 2pm at Lower Winskill, Langcliffe: Flowers of North Craven – a walk and talk with Tom Lord.

Great countryside and great for kids!

Tickets FREE!! from Folly or TIC

Tuesday 30th, 10.30am – 4.30pm: Sheep to Shawl. Can we card and spin the wool and knit a shawl in just one day? Come and cheer us on and help us out!

July: Monday 6th, 10am – 4pm: Felt Making Day School with Vicky Mulligan, local artist. £25 including materials, teas and coffees. Places must be booked in advance at The Folly.

August: Tuesday 4th: Make a sheep!

Collage or felt a sheepy souvenir of Settle!

September: Sunday 13th Heritage Open Day -

FREE ENTRY and quiz! Find out about Heritage Open Days and other local attractions opening free at: www.heritageopendays.org.uk

Thursday 24th, 2pm: The 19th

Century Workhouse. A talk by Alan Mills. Tickets £5

October: Sunday 25th: The Big Draw

Work with local artist Sam Dalby to create a giant group drawing and one of your very own! Part of a national annual drawing event.

See www.campaignfordrawing.org for other local events.

November: Please check local press for event details or contact Settle TIC

December: Saturday 12th, 10am-12 noon. Our annual Yuletide celebration with music and mulled wine. Free admission. Refreshments £3.

Opening Times

From Easter to the end of October:

Tuesday, Saturday, Sunday
and Bank Holidays

10.30am – 4.30pm

Party visits welcome by appointment. Phone 015242 51388 (Hon. Curator) or 01729 822361

Admission

Children 16 and under: FREE

Adults: £1.80 (Gift Aided £2)

Concessions: £1.35 (Gift Aided £1.50)

Gift-aid admission enables the Trust to reclaim tax on the whole amount paid.

Contacts

Telephone: Hon. Curator: 015242 51388

Project Officer, Sue Mackay:

0797 022 0979

E-mail enquiries: folly@ncbpt.org.uk

Website: www.ncbpt.org.uk/folly

Settle Tourist Information Centre

(TIC): 01729 825192

North Craven Building Preservation Trust
Charity no. 505438