

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

News from The Folly (Nov 2011) (Settle & District Community News)

1 Nov 2011

There was another action-packed afternoon at the Folly on October 30th when we were hosts to the annual national event, The Big Draw. Local artist Sam Dalby masterminded the event, the theme being 'Homes'. Sam drew a large house, garden and garage and then encouraged the ten children and seven parents who attended, to furnish the house, plant the garden and fill the garage. Plus cats, dogs and some beautiful spiders!

The Museum of North Craven Life at the Folly now has its own Facebook page. Thank you to Lorna Pimperton who has created the page and keeps it up to date with news about the Folly and with photographs of events.

However, we now need lots of fans of the page so that we can really make the most of it and let people know about events, activities and on occasion, pleas for help. If you don't use Facebook, please ask friends and family who do, to join.

The easiest way to find the Facebook page is to follow the link from any page on the Museum's website at www.ncbpt.org.uk/folly

Don't miss the Yuletide event on Saturday, December 10th. There will be seasonal words and music, mulled wine and mince pies from 10.00 – 12 noon. Entry is free, refreshments £3.00

[Ends]
